ABOUT OUR COMPANY

THE HISTORY OF FUN.COM

Armed with nothing but a sewing machine and some serious skills, Jenice Fallenstein hand-crafted costumes for her children every Halloween to create a unique array of pop culture characters they loved. Later, the Fallenstein family had the awesome idea to open up a costume rental shop in their garage, allowing the whole town to experience these quality costumes. With just a few dozen styles, the idea was an immediate hit and continued to grow each year.

Amidst this local success, Tom Fallenstein had the idea to take the business online, and that proved to be a success to this day! But we're no longer in that small garage. We've evolved beyond just Halloween to become FUN.com, purveyors of exciting pop culture gifts, exclusive costumes and apparel, and all things fun!

Our incredible team is comprised of 175 year-round employees and thousands of seasonal employees, all operating out of a 200,000 square foot warehouse in Southern Minnesota.

We ship #NerdyGoofyFun all around the world!

ABOUT OUR CEO

TOM FALLENSTEIN

Tom Fallenstein is the founder and CEO of FUN.com. He was born and raised in Mankato, Minnesota.

Tom built the company's first website, FlapperCostumes.com, in 2001 with $5,000 he borrowed from his parents. He sold one costume style in just three colors and ran the website from his college house, where his entire inventory fit in a closet. After that, he built three more websites while going to school for Computer Information Science and Graphic Design at Minnesota State University, Mankato. After graduating in December of 2004, he decided to make Costumes Galore his full-time job, transforming it into FUN.com and HalloweenCostumes.com
